MAYOR'S REPORT: James Wolf

Met with Chris from Little Dutch Bakery. He has over a dozen interested people in the business and to keep it Little Dutch. Along with the sale of the business Chris is offering to stay on and teach the recipes. Chris will take some time off and then begin meeting with each interested applicant. Chris will continue to own the building and is very dedicated to do what's best for Mt. Healthy.

Mayor would like to make a recommendation, Dave Osterday, for a new member to Planning Commission. Thinks he will be perfect for Planning Commission. This is mayor's recommendation and would need a motion from council to appoint Mr. Osterday. There is no rush if council has any concerns or questions.

CITY MANAGER'S REPORT: Bill Kocher

Chief Demasi would like to recommend continuing with the objection of liquor license renewal for Reminisce because issues continue. We would withdraw the objection for Vince's and Take a Shot.

PIRHL, Clovernook Apartments. A security team is supposed to start work on February 14th. The car tagging has been an ongoing process. Landscaper continues to trim trees and bushes to assist with lighting and camera views.

TEC's proposal for a traffic calming study on Hamilton Avenue was on your desk.

Mr. Kocher will have them come in to discuss this during a work session at the first meeting in March Redline was purchased by an unknown. City did not win the bid. There were just two bidders. We do not know the buyer or what the plans are at the location.
