MAYOR'S REPORT: James Wolf

There is a discrepancy in Hamilton County's Department of Health website with the COVID-19 cases by zip code 45231. Mayor has asked for a correction and an accurate number. He will post the information to Facebook and on our City's website.

Several residents have reached out if the City would be doing COVID-19 testing. The City will not do any

CITY MANAGER'S REPORT: Bill Kocher

We will start to think through how we will open City Hall. We have been operating good right now. Going to look to open fully by June 1st. Still doing building permits. We will lead by example.

There has been really good work going back and forth with the County.

Police are back to their regular shifts.

All park concerts have been cancelled for June. Going to hold off on making the decision for July 4th fireworks. The pool will not be open at all this summer.
